

Three Dead in State Accidents

By Associated Press

Traffic accidents claimed the lives of at least three persons in Wisconsin over the week-end, as icy, snow-clogged and rain-swept roads made traffic conditions hazardous.

Paul Clemons, 23, Janesville, was killed when his automobile skidded off Highway 16 and overturned into a stream 16 miles north of Darlington Saturday night.