

ELLIS CLIFFORD MAYO

Ellis Clifford Mayo, 54, of Gulf Breeze died Saturday night, April 9, 1994, at his home after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Mayo was a native of Bagdad and a lifelong resident of Santa Rosa County. He was a commercial fisherman and a member of St. Paul United Methodist Church.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Lois Mayo; his father, James Henry Mayo Sr.; his brother, James Henry Mayo Jr.; and his sister, Diane Elizabeth Mayo.

Survivors include his wife, Madonna Mayo of Gulf Breeze; three daughters and a son-in-law, Bonita Hendrix, Charmaine and Vic Broxson and Carie Lawrence, all of Gulf Breeze; three sons and two daughters-in-law, Jimmy and Page Skinner of Milton, Clifford and Jennifer Mayo of Gulf Breeze and Craig Lawrence of Gulf Breeze; 10 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; his mother, Eula Mae Mayo of Gulf Breeze; his sister, Karen