

FUNERAL OF JOHN A. LYLE

REMAINS PLACED AT REST YESTERDAY AFTERNOON IN ST. JOHN'S CEMETERY, MANY BEING PRESENT.

The remains of John A. Lyle, who died Saturday at his home in St. Andrews, were placed at rest yesterday afternoon in St. John's cemetery, a large number of friends of the family attending, and a bugler from Fort Barrancas sounding taps over the grave at the conclusion of the services.

Mr. Lyle had reached the advanced age of 74 years, twenty-two of which had been spent in Florida. He was a native of Scotland, but came to this country when a young man.

He is survived by a wife, two sons and two daughters, among whom is Jas. A. Lyle, of this city.
