

DR. T.J. WELCH IS DEAD HERE

Dentist Had Been Pensacola Resident 45 Years

Dr. T. J. Welch, prominent retired dentist, died at his home, 1209 North Palafox street, yesterday at 6:45 p. m.

Dr. Welch had made his home in this city for 45 years. He retired 20 years ago. He is survived by his widow and several relatives in Virginia.

Funeral services will be held from the home today at 3 p. m. Rev. D. H. McNeal, of the Gadsden Street Methodist church, will officiate. Burial will be in St. John's cemetery. Pou Funeral Service has charge.

Honorary pallbearers will be Arthur Yniestra, W. J. Forbes, J. C. Watson, A. C. Wilson, W. C. Mackey, A. Y. Smith, Phillip D. Beall and Dr. F. P. Hixon.

Active pallbearers will be Everette Mock, Dr. A. E. Mock, Davis Hannah, Willie Yniestra, Walter Acosta and Dr. J. H. Mock.