

BAARS

Frank Ellison Baars, of 1660 Texar Drive, died Sunday morning at his residence. He was 51.

Mr. Baars was a native and lifelong resident of Pensacola. He was a member of the Pensacola Country Club, a veteran of World War II and associated with Baars Realty.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothy Diane E. Baars; his mother, Mrs. Henry G. Baars Sr.; a brother, Henry G. Baars Jr., all of Pensacola; two sons, Jack Orenstein and Mark Orenstein both of Valdosta, Ga., and a daughter, Barbara Careddu of Pensacola.

Funeral services will be 3 p.m. Tuesday at the Christ Episcopal Church with the Rev. Ronald C. Davis officiating.

Burial will be at St. Johns Cemetery with McNeil-Keyes Funeral Home directing.

Active pallbearers will be Henry G. Baars Jr., Theo D. Baars Jr., Theo D. Baars III, John B. Connell, Jack Orenstein and Mark Orenstein.

Honorary pallbearers will be Ralph Connell, George Stringfield, Gordon Wells, A. F. Brown, John Donovan and W. F. Seith.

Friends may call from 9 to 11 a.m. Tuesday at the funeral home.

Clipped By:

WESLEY_ODOM

Wed, Apr 24, 2024