

Services Set For Miss Ray

Veteran Teacher Dies in Hospital

Miss Mary Margaret Ray, 81, retired prominent school teacher and civic leader, died Thursday morning in Sacred Heart hospital.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Friday in the First Baptist church with the Rev. Elwin L. Skiles, pastor, and the Rev. John D. Thomas, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating.

Miss Ray, who lived with her niece, Mrs. E. D. Barwick, 2015 East Hernandez, taught in Escambia schools for more than 50 years.

Active in civic affairs, she was a member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy of which she was past president and state historian, director of the Junior Red Cross, member of the Historical society and organizer of the Junior Historical society. She was a member of the First Baptist church.

Besides Mrs. Barwick, survivors include five nephews, W. N. Ray of Pensacola; J. W. and William Ray of Boulder, Colo.; Amos H. and Frank E. Ray of Montgomery, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. J. W. Ray of Montgomery.

The body will be at Fisher-Pou Funeral home until 2:30 p.m. Friday.

Burial will be in St. John's cemetery, with the following serving as pallbearers: John Monroe, Elmo Britt, Rufus Britt, Ernest E. Mason, William N. Ray and Paul W. Caro.