FISHER-POU FUNERAL SERVICE JADRIEVIC

Mrs. Annette Day Jadrievic, 71, of 1510 E. Yonge St. died Saturday afternoon in a local hospital.

Mrs. Jadrievic was a native and lifelong resident of Pensacola. She was a member of Sacred Heart Cathedral, and graduated from Pensacola High School, Charity Hospital School of Nursing, and Louisiana State University with an ABS degree in nursing education. Mrs. Jadrievic was a Register Professional Nurse and a member of the American Nurses Association.

Survivors include her stepmother, Alva Grydeman; a step-brother, Eldridge McVoy, both of Ontario, Calif.; two sisters-in-laws, Florida Ledkins and Dalmatia Juedevine; a brother-in-law, James Jadrievic, all of Pensacola; several cousins, Mrs. W.W. Day Sr., Altne Bowersox, Dorothy Grimmel, Monroe Campbell Jr., W.W. Day Jr. and Thomas Day, all of Pensacola.

Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Tuesday in the Cathedral of Sacred Heart with Fr. Luke Hunt saying mass.

Burial will be in St. John's Cemetery with Fisher-Pou Funeral Service directing.

Active pallbearers will be Tom Sutton, Farrell Allen, Ferrell O'Neal, Fordham Nathan, Billy Burke, Tommy Day, and Bill Bowersox.

Honorary pallbearers will be members of the Sunshine Club, Mother Cabrini Circle, and Sared Heart Parish Alter Society.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that memorials be made to Sacred Heart Childrens Hospital.
