

Death of Mr. John R. McGaughy.

The numerous friends of Mr. John R. McGaughy were pained yesterday morning to learn of his death which had occurred at a late hour of the previous night at his residence corner of Spring and Gadsden streets.

The deceased was about 55 years of age and for a long time had been a trusted employe of the timber firm of H. Biars & Co. He had been confined to his bed with inflammatory rheumatism for about two months previous to his death.

Mr. McGaughy had been a resident of Pensacola for several years, coming here from the city of New Orleans. He was an honored member of the Washington Artillery of that city, with which he gallantly served through the war. He was also a member of Camp Ward, Confederate Veterans, of this city and also an honorary member of the Pensacola Light Artillery.

The funeral will take place at Christ church at 3 o'clock this afternoon, the funeral cortege leaving the house at 2:30 o'clock. The veterans of Camp Ward will attend the funeral in a body, and the remains will be escorted by the Escambia Rifles and Pensacola Light Artillery.
