

MEMORIAL CHAPEL CARY

John Wilson Cary, 66, of Pensacola, died Sunday morning in a local hospital.

Mr. Cary was a native of Gonzalez, and had lived in the Gonzalez and Pensacola area all of his life. He was a member of the Gadsden St. United Methodist Church and was a retired supervisor with Gulf Power Co. He was the great-grandson of James M. Tate, founder of Tate High School. He was a member of the Sons of the Confederate and a veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his widow, Helen Cary of Pensacola; five daughters, Paige Cary, Carolyn Colley, Joan Gay and Jane Busbee, all of Pensacola and Bonnie Lucek of Athens, Tenn.; three sisters, Marguerite Phillips, Mary Louise Esders and Virginia Anderson, all of Pensacola; two brothers, John Tate Cary Jr. of Pensacola and Raymond F. Cary of Atlanta, Ga.; eight grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday in the Harper-Morris Memorial Chapel with Dr. Charles Hays Jr. officiating.

The family will receive friends from 5 to 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Harper-Morris Memorial Chapel.

Burial will be at the St. Johns Cemetery with Harper-Morris Memorial Chapel directing.

Active pallbearers will be Clem Bonifay, Jim Aiken, Tommy Cushing, Kenneth Wright, Dick Fowler, Dick Rosenau and Don Merchant.

Honorary pallbearers will be Ed Addison, Kenneth Archer, Alton Wesley, Dr. Paul Baroco, Jack Hitchcock, Charlie Bobe, Billy Renfroe, John Hamrick, and Dallas Wickie.