

CASON

James R. Cason, 70, of 117 Milton Road, died Wednesday morning at a local hospital.

Mr. Cason was a native of Ware County, Ga., and had resided in Pensacola for the past 15 years. He was a member of the Richards Memorial United Methodist Church, a veteran of World War II, a retired Civil Service employe, a member of Prospect Lodge No. 578 F&AM, a Scottish Rite Mason and a member of the Hadji Shrine Temple.

Survivors include his widow, Dorothy Cason of Pensacola; three brothers, George Cason of Kansas City, Mo., John Cason of California and Marvin Cason of Jacksonville, and a sister, Mrs. Fred Buttner of Jacksonville.

Graveside Masonic services will be 3 p.m. Friday at St. John Cemetery in Pensacola. Oak Lawn Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Escambia Masonic Lodge Number 15 will open at 2:30 p.m. Friday to prepare for services.

The family prefers memorials be made to the Heart Fund.

Friends may call Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the funeral home.
