

CLYDE B. COVINGTON

Clyde B. Covington, 82, of Pensacola died Monday, July 10, 1995, following a lengthy illness.

Mr. Covington was born in Ashburn, Ga., but lived most of his life in Pensacola. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II and retired from Southern Bell Telephone Company after 36 years of service.

Survivors include his two sisters, Dorothy Harris and Lois Barker, both of Thomaston, Ga.; sons, Randy Covington of Gulf Breeze and Dennis Covington of Pensacola; son and daughter-in-law, Pat and Terry Covington of Gulf Breeze; niece, Patricia McNeil of Pensacola; and granddaughter, Sarah Covington of Gulf Breeze.

Graveside services will be 10 a.m. Thursday in St. John's Cemetery with Dr. Alton Butler, pastor Emeritus of Myrtle Grove Baptist Church, officiating.

HARPER MORRIS MEMORIAL