

CONSTANTINE JOHN
DICKSON
1913 - 2007

Constantine John Dickson, a resident of Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas and Pensacola, Florida passed away Tuesday, February 20, 2007.

Constantine was born on May 21, 1913 in Glossa, Skopelos Greece. At 14, he joined his father in America and graduated from High School in Hot Springs, Arkansas.

After World War II, he married and started television station KFOY. He later built and successfully operated the popular FM radio station KGUS in Hot Springs. He was widowed, and in 1987 Constantine and his wife, Nina, renewed their childhood friendship and discovered love once again. They were married at St. John Theologos Greek Orthodox Church of Destin and celebrat-