

WILLIAM F. GAMBILL

William F. Gambill, 45, of 3452 McLean St., died Wednesday afternoon from injuries received in an auto accident.

He was a native and lifelong resident of Pensacola, a member of the Gadsden Street Methodist Church, had been employed as foreman for Monsanto for 15 years and was currently employed as supervisor with the Florida Parole and Probation Commission.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Dolores Anderson Gambill of Pensacola; two sons, Raymond William Gambill and Clayton Frederick Gambill; two daughters, Miss Dana Lynn Gambill and Miss Melanie Ann Gambill; and his mother, Mrs. Virginia Hoffman Gambill; all of Pensacola.

Funeral services will be held in the McNeil-Keyes Funeral Home Chapel at 3 p.m. Friday with the Rev. Karl D. Stringfellow, pastor of the Ferry Pass United Methodist Church officiating.

Pallbearers will be William N. Taylor, John Hancock, Mike Hamm, William H. Gunter, Gerald McArthur, Fred L. Peacock and Dr. Sneed B. Collard.

Burial will be in the St. John's Cemetery with McNeil-Keyes Funeral Home.