
CLEVELAND BAKER DIED AFTER A SHORT ILLNESS

Young Cleveland Baker, a gentleman having many friends in this city, expired at his home near Fisherville yesterday about 4 p. m., and the funeral will be held at 4:30 o'clock today. The young man was very popular in this city, and scores were pained to learn of his demise.
