

HUGGINS

Elbert Preston Huggins, 71, of Pensacola, died Thursday morning in a local hospital. He was a native of Lockhart, Ala., and had been a resident of Escambia County for the past 50 years.

Mr. Huggins was a retired Civil Service Worker, a Veteran of World War II and a member of the Brownsville Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Doris Huggins of Pensacola; a son and daughter-in-law, Donnie and Debbie Huggins of Ft. Walton Beach, Fla; two daughters, Linda Huggins and Renee Huggins, both of Pensacola; two sisters, Mrs. Audrey Segers and Mrs. Bonnie Ruhe, both of Pensacola; a grandson, Keith Huggins of Pensacola; three granddaughters, Beth Tilley of Pensacola, Stacy Huggins and Kelly Huggins, both of Ft. Walton Beach; and a great granddaughter, Ashley Tilley of Pensacola.

Funeral services will be held 12:30 p.m. Saturday from the chapel of Faith Chapel with the Rev. Clayton Baker officiating, assisted by the Rev. Luther Stephens. Interment will follow at St. Johns Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Michael Segers, David Segers, Smitty Nix, Keith Huggins, Corbett Gandy and Jack Tilley.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society.