

MRS. W. H. BAKER DIED YESTERDAY

Funeral of Well- Known Lady Today.

Mrs. Lovenia Desterra Baker, 62, died yesterday afternoon at her home, 1420 West Peterson street, following a lingering illness. Mrs. Baker, who was born in Chicago, had lived in Pensacola about 60 years, and had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

She was the wife of Captain William H. Baker, who formerly operated a tug boat in Pensacola Bay, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Crause.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Bryan D. and William H., jr.; three daughters, Mrs. John J. Caro and Mrs. E. R. Swaine, of Pensacola, and Mrs. C. P. Barry, of Chicago; a brother, George Crause, and nine grandchildren.

Interment will take place today, with services at the home at 3:30 o'clock and at Christ Episcopal Church at 4 o'clock. Rev. Hendree Harrison will officiate, and the following will act as pallbearers: Brydon Bell, Randall Bell, John W. Waters, Walter Briggs, S. R. Malloy and John Burns. T. M. Lloyd is in charge of arrangements.
