

RICHARD F. WILSON

Funeral services for Richard F. Wilson, 57, who died Friday in the Navy hospital, will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday in the Fisher-Pou chapel, with the Rev. John D. Thomas and the Rev. H. D. Rice officiating.

Interment will be in St. John's cemetery, with the following serving as pallbearers: honorary, Monroe Campbell, Sam Radcliff, Z. Cunningham, Sam Hall, J. F. Bogart, A. E. Whipple, and J. T. Wilson. Active: Dr. Ed T. White, Douglas Hurd, William White, Shannon Hobgood, Reese Thornton and Eddie Bonifay.

Mr. Wilson was a retired L&N railroad conductor, veteran of World War I and a lifelong resident of Pensacola.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mildred Durham Wilson; three daughters, Mrs. Leon G. Smith, Mrs. D. P. Hobgood, Jr., and Miss Mary Ann Wilson; a son, Charles Raymond Wilson, all of Pensacola; a sister, Mrs. Frank Cook of San Diego, Calif.; two brothers, Raymond and Edwin Wilson, both of Pensacola, and two grandchildren.