

DOROTHY MCLEOD MCALLISTER

*A Dedication to My Mother
In tears I saw you sinking, and watched you fade away.*

My heart was almost broken, I wanted you to stay.

But when I saw you sleeping so peaceful, free from pains,

How could I wish you back with me, to suffer over again.

*It broke my heart to lose you,
but you did not go alone,*

For part of me went with you on the day God took you home.
