

Died, In this city this morning, in the 78th year of his age, Mr. S. BRONNUM, a native of Denmark.

New York papers please copy.

Mr. Bronnum is one of the old residents of this city, having lived here for over forty years. He raised a large family of children, many of whom are still residing here. His funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon. We tender our sympathies to the bereaved family.